JEAN BRIESE

SPEAKER & LEADER

JEAN BRIESE, an accomplished business leader, empowering coach, and gifted communicator. For over 20 years, Jean has been creating award winning teams and helping individuals and teams to do the thing they think is impossible, delivering unprecedented results and exceptional growth. Jean brings enormous expertise, insight, and energy to her presentations and her powerful messages resonate with people all over the world, from entrepreneurs to corporate professionals to nonprofits and women's groups.

LEADER

Jean's executive leadership spans 20 years where she created and led award winning teams for Fortune 50 organizations. Jean also founded and led a non-profit organization designed to support law enforcement families. Jean has served on several community boards including American Cancer Society, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, President of Metro Professional Group and served on the Parish Council at her church. Virtually every team that Jean has led, has achieved industry recognition and been ranked number one in their division.

In order to lead, you have to inspire people to want to follow. A true leader knows that leadership extends beyond self. Jean shares what drives top leaders and how they inspire collective success. While her message resonates with everyone, Jean has a passion for helping women in professional leadership roles. A trailblazer in a male-dominated technology industry, Jean empowers women to carve out their own path for success. Her message inspires, using humor and personal stories of her own experiences to connect. Jean shows how you can find fulfillment without sacrificing personal or professional goals.

SPEAKER

Jean speaks to groups with a message that inspires, encourages, motivates and challenges. With a knack for rousing excitement and engaging her audience, participants find themselves igniting transformative change, both personally and professionally.

A sought-after keynote speaker, Jean draws upon her deep experience in sales, leadership and relationship building, to deliver game changing messages to companies, trade associations, and teams worldwide.

Jean's formula for success is easily transferable across industries and fuels audiences with the inspiration to imagine and achieve the possibilities.

TRAINER/GROWTH EXPERT

Jean's passion is to help people become who they were meant to be. Jean's gift is to see the best in others, often when they can't yet see it in themselves and to help them unleash their potential. By gaining clarity of purpose and working through a defined process, Jean's clients have successfully moved into new professional roles, enabling increased personal growth, more contentment in their careers and bigger paychecks.

Jean has advised and partnered with professionals in a thought provoking and creative process that inspires them to maximize their personal and professional potential. Together we will discover, clarify and align with what YOU want to achieve. We will embark on a path of discovery to help determine your maximum potential and implement steps that enable your best self. This process will dramatically improve your outlook on work and life, while improving leadership skills and unlocking your potential.
